September has been a month to wind down and catch up on paper work and reports. Storytime resumed on September 8th with one child. I am hoping more will begin attending as the year progresses.

The state required report for Summer Reading Program and the System required report for the SRP Mini Grant have been submitted as of September 8th.

Currently I've been sorting materials and files as well as attempting to catalog materials on the black cart. A 2023 Cull report has been created and discarding books can resume as soon as we have a place suitable to store them.
